

NWISC Violin Workshop

With

Edward Kreitman

(author of Teaching from the Balance Point—A Guide for Suzuki Parents, Teachers, and Students, a well-known guest clinician at Suzuki institutes and workshops, and Founder and Director of the Western Springs School of Talent Education) and

James VanReeth

(Director of the Denison University Suzuki Program in Granville, OH, and a popular clinician at Suzuki workshops and institutes)

Saturday, February 23, 2008

10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Including:

Masterclasses with individual lesson time for each student

Group class

Break for lunch

Other learning opportunities

Early registration deadline: December 14, 2007

Early registration workshop cost: $34

Regular registration deadline: February 9, 2008

Regular registration workshop cost: $37

Late registration (after February 9) workshop cost: $40

Please make checks payable to NWISC and include with the completed registration form.
Bring or mail form and check to the location of the workshop:

NWISC

505 Don Hovey Dr.

Valparaiso, IN 46383

Name of student(s): _____ Nickname(s): _____

Age(s): _____ Name of parent(s): _____

Phone No.: () _____ Email: _____

Working piece: _____ Polished piece: _____

Violin teacher: _____

Teacher's signature for approval of polished piece: _____

Submission of this form indicates my wish to register for NWISC's 2008 Violin Workshop. I understand that photographs taken during the workshop may be used without financial compensation, unless otherwise indicated in writing. Submission of this registration indicates my agreement that I will not hold NWISC or WSSTE or any members thereof responsible for any loss, damages or injury incurred directly or indirectly from participation in any of the workshop's events.